

Christian Gaillard is Professor of Fine Art and Psychoanalysis, a Training Analyst and supervisor with the SFPA (France) of which he is a past President. He was also President of the IAAP from 2004 to 2007. His publications include Le Musée Imaginaire de Jung (Paris, Stock, 1998), « The Arts » in The Handbook of Jungian Psychology (ed. R. Papadopoulos ; London & New York, Routledge, 2006) and Jung (Paris, Presses Universitaires de France, 2010, 5th edn.). He co-authored L'inconscio Creatore with L. Ravasi (Bergamo, Moretti e Vitali, 2009).

Chris MacKenna is an Anglican priest and a Senior Member of the Jungian Analytic Section of the BAP. Currently, he is Director of St Marylebone Healing & Counselling Centre, London, and Chaplain and Clinical Director to the Guild of Health. He is particularly interested in the psychology of religious experience and of religiously structured organisations; he has published a number of papers about the resonances and conflicts between religious and psychotherapeutic understandings.

Sonu Shamdasani is Historian of Psychology and Psychiatry, Philemon Professor of Jung and Acting Director of the Wellcome Trust Centre for the History of Medicine, University College London. He is the editor of The Red Book: Liber Novus and author of Jung and the Making of Modern Psychology: The Dream of a Science.

Murray Stein is a former President of the IAAP (2001-2004) and presently the President of the International School of Analytical Psychology in Zurich (ISAPZurich), of which he is also a training and supervising analyst. He is the author of In MidLife, Jung's Treatment of Christianity, Jung's Map of the Soul and many other books and articles. Most recently he has edited and published Jungian Psychoanalysis in collaboration with an international team of Jungian psychoanalysts.

Jan Wiener is a Training Analyst and supervisor for both the SAP and the BAP and a former Director of training for the SAP. She works part time in a National Health Service Adult Psychotherapy Clinic in London and is also in private practice. She is currently a Vice-President of the IAAP. Author of a number of papers and chapters on analytical psychology, she is on the editorial board of the Journal of Analytical Psychology. Her latest book is The Therapeutic Relationship: Transference, Countertransference and the Making of Meaning. She lectures widely in Europe and the US.

THE SOCIETY OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

THE RED BOOK TWO YEARS ON: WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED? PUBLIC PROGRAMME LONDON 2011/2012

For up to date information

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

www.thesap.org.uk

and/or

JOIN OUR MAILING LIST

training@thesap.org.uk

Cheques will be returned if an event is fully booked. In accordance with the Consumer Protection Regulations 2000, you have 7 days from the time we receive payment to cancel your registration. After such a time, your fee will be non-refundable.

1 Daleham Gardens, London, NW3 5BY
020 7435 7696
www.thesap.org.uk
clericalofficer@thesap.org.uk

A Joint Conference
of the Society of Analytical Psychology and the Journal of Analytical Psychology

THE RED BOOK TWO YEARS ON: WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED?

Friday, 11 November 2011
16.00 - 20.00

Saturday, 12 November 2011
09.30 - 17.00

The publication of Jung's 'Red Book' (Liber Novus) in 2009 has been an outstanding success, with worldwide sales exceeding all expectations. Since it is a complex book that takes time to absorb, this conference provides an opportunity, two years after its initial publication, for scholars and clinicians to come together to begin to consider its long term meaning and significance for Jungian theory and practice.

SPEAKERS

PAUL BISHOP
CHRISTIAN GAILLARD
SONU SHAMDASANI
MURRAY STEIN

CLINICAL PANEL

Four analysts from different Jungian orientations will form a clinical panel to discuss the significance of The Red Book for their clinical work and thinking.

GEORGE BRIGHT (SAP)
CATHERINE BYGOTT (IGAP)
PENNY CULLIFORD (AJA)
CHRISTOPHER MACKENNA (BAP)

CHAIRS
WARREN COLMAN
JAN WIENER

Friday, 11 November

- 16.00 Welcome and Introduction
Warren Colman
Jan Wiener
- 16.15 - 17.30 Murray Stein
On Jung's (Mostly) Unread
Red Book: How to Read
Liber Novus and Why
- 17.30 - 18.45 Christian Gaillard
The Egg, the Vessels and the Words. From Izdubar to Answer to Job
- 18.45 - 20.00 Reception

Saturday, 12 November

- 09.30 - 10.45 Paul Bishop
Jung's Red Book and its Relation to Aspects of German Idealism
- 10.45 - 11.15 Coffee Break
- 11.15 - 12.30 Sonu Shamdasani
After Liber Novus
- 12.30 - 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 - 15.45 George Bright
Catherine Bygott
Penny Culliford
Chris MacKenna
Clinical Implications of the Red Book
- 15.45 - 16.15 Tea
- 16.15 - 17.00 Closing Plenary &
Discussion

Paul Bishop is Professor of German at the University of Glasgow and Deputy Director of the Centre for Intercultural Studies. His research interests concern the history of ideas, modern German thought, Goethe, Nietzsche, Jung, Freud and Lacan. Author of numerous articles and books on Jung, his publications include Jung's Answer to Job: A Commentary and Analytical Psychology and German Classical Aesthetics – Goethe, Schiller and Jung. He is a special adviser to the Journal of Analytical Psychology.

George Bright is a Training Analyst of the Society of Analytical Psychology as well as for the British Association of Psychotherapists (Jungian Section) and the Association of Child Psychotherapists. He works in private practice in West London.

Catherine Bygott is a supervising analyst with the Association of Jungian Analysts (AJA) and a Senior Member of the Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists (IGAP). She has led numerous seminars and workshops over the past twenty years on the structure and dynamics of the psyche, and its amplification through alchemy, fairytales and active imagination techniques. She has a private analytic practice in Somerset.

Warren Colman is a Training Analyst for the Society of Analytical Psychology and Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Analytical Psychology. He teaches, lectures and supervises internationally and has published many papers on diverse topics. Most of his recent papers have been concerned with symbolic imagination and the transcendent function. He is in full-time private practice in St. Albans.

Penny Culliford first trained at the Westminster Pastoral Foundation where she subsequently became a member of the conjoint marital team. Drawn to Jungian ideas and wanting to deepen her understanding of Jungian psychology she later trained with the Association of Jungian Analysts where she is now a member. She has a private practice in South London.

Venue: Arundel House, 13-15 Arundel Street
London, WC2R 3DX

Cost: £135

EARLY BOOKING IS ADVISED
020 7435 7696