Carl Jung and Rudolf Steiner on a theme of Goethe

Saturday 20th October 2012, St Albans Centre,
Leigh Place, Baldwins Gardens, London EC1N 7B

Professor Paul Bishop and Dr John Lees

Paul Bishop will present a brief overview of Jung's use of concepts derived from Goethe, and argue that analytical psychology offers a model of transformation based on Goethean principles. Paul is professor of German at Glasgow University and his latest book Reading Goethe at midlife: ancient wisdom, German classicism and Jung explores the historical idea of the midlife crisis using the writings of Jung and Goethe to investigate its relevance today.

John Lees will look at Steiner's spiritual science and the scientific world view of Goethe. His lecture will develop the theme of holistic connection with the world, uniting art, science and religion, based on his clinical counselling and psychotherapeutic experiences. John is Senior Lecturer in Mental Health at Leeds University, an anthroposophic psychotherapy practitioner and Chair of Trustees, Emerson College. He is a well known author and editor.

10.00 — 4.00pm (coffee and registration 9.30)
