

The Research in Analytical Psychology and Jungian Studies series

<http://www.routledge.com/books/series/JUNGIANSTUDIES>

Series Advisor: Andrew Samuels, Professor of Analytical Psychology, University of Essex, UK

The Research in Analytical Psychology and Jungian Studies series features research-focused volumes involving qualitative and quantitative research, historical/archival research, theoretical developments, heuristic research, grounded theory, narrative approaches, collaborative research, practitioner-led research, and self-study. The series also includes focused works by clinical practitioners, and provides new research-informed explorations of the work of C. G Jung that will appeal to researchers, academics, and scholars alike.

We welcome submissions from those who have recently completed their PhD or clinical qualifying dissertation as well as from more established scholars and clinicians. We are interested in edited collections of papers as well as single-author volumes.

Proposals: please contact Heidi Lee, heidi.lee@tandf.co.uk
