

The 2019 International Association for Jungian Studies Regional Conference in Japan

‘Jungian Psychology: East and West, encountering differences’

Otemon Gakuin University, Osaka, Japan
November 2-3, 2019

Program 2 November

Time	5605 (Main venue: English-Japanese simultaneous interpretation)		Time	5606 (only Japanese)
	Name	Title		Name	Title
8:15~	Registration (Student hall:Building No.5 B1F)
9:00~9:15	Opening words Toshiaki Kawahara: President of Otemongakuin University Konoyu Nakamura:Chair, The 2019 IAJS Regional Conference in Japan
9:15~10:45	Keynote speech Andrew Samuels Intimate relationships between women and men: psychosocial and post-jungian perspectives
10:45~11:00	Refreshment
Session1 Japanese Tradition 11:00~12:30	Konoyu Nakamura	Encountering the other world in Japanese Manga: from Hyakki-yagyo-zu to Pocket Monsters
	David Fisher	East Meets West: Pre and Post World War II and the Japanese Warrior Psyche
	Mayumi Furukawa	More Ancient Layers of the Japanese Psyche as Seen from the Tales and Dreams of the Ainu
12:30~13:30	Lunch (Student hall:Building No.5 B1F)
13:30~15:00	Keynote speech Megumi Yama How Can We Survive in This Globalized Age? Exploring ego consciousness in the Western and the Japanese psyches
15:00~15:15	Refreshment
Session2 Asian Culture 15:15~16:45	Adelina Wei Kwan Wong	Ancient Chinese Hieroglyph: Archetype of Transformation of Jungian Psychology and Its Clinical Implication	Session3 Jungian Psychotherapy for Death	Hiroshi Kuranishi	The dialectical mourning process for loss from death after having experienced a previous 'ambiguous loss'
	Kojiro Miwa	Ensou and Tree view therapy: Zen based psychotherapy from Hisamatsu and Kato theory		Junji Miyazawa	"Meaning" of dream analysis with a woman in the approach of death

	Kanichi Imai	The funeral Journey and its rituals — When pilgrims open the individual consciousness—	15:15~16:15	Kotomi Kawashima	Robot as marginal-man —about transcendent possibility of dichotomy: West and East, alive and dead.—
16:45~17:00	Refreshment
Session4 Art Therapy	Pi-Chen Hsu Hirofumi Kuroda	The House Imago and the Creation of Order—Cases from an Attachment Representation Study and an Asian patient with Schizophrenia	Poster Session 17:00~18:00	Yasuko Inoue	“The Great Mother Archetype” and Psychotherapy
17:00~18:00	Yukako Nakai	Images of Virgin Mary Induced during Sandplay therapy.		Ryutaro Nishi Himeka Matsushita	Makoto Tsumori’s philosophy of care and education in relation to Jungian psychology

Program 3 November

Time	5605 (Main venue: English-Japanese simultaneous interpretation)		Time	5606 (only Japanese)
	Name	Title		Name	Title
8:30~	Registration (Student hall:Building No.5 B1F)
9:00~10:30	Keynote speech Iwao Akita Disfigured Hero
10:30~10:45	Refreshment
Session5 east and west 10:45~12:15	Tsuyoshi Inomata	Emptiness and Diversity –psychological inner movement in western and eastern culture
	Evija Volfa Vestergaard	From Dragons to Leaders: Similarities in Latvian and Japanese Psyches
	Elly Lin	Ego-Self Axis Re-examined in the Context of East-West Psychology
12:15~13:15	Lunch (student hall:Building No.5 B1F)
13:15~14:45	Keynote speech Stefano Carta Pinocchio and AstroBoy—From the fetishism of Things to an Ecology of Beings in the West and in Japan—
14:45~15:00	Refreshment
Session6 jungian theory	Tomoaki Kano	The Dream Analysis of 12 years old Boy in School Counseling: The Process of Getting Wildness and Reflection	Session7 image of anima 15:00~16:00	Yuka Ogiso	Psychological consideration of “Nin-gyo” image in Japan: mermaid as a speaking fish or a nixie
	Lynlee Lyckberg	Cultural Reflection in Eastern and Western Tales of the Mirror		Kosuke Nitta	A symbol of relatedness: The anima through the image of “Sister”

15:00~16:30	Jun Kitayama	Reflections on the Religious Life of Saint Francis of Assisi Focusing on His Dreams and Visions
16:30~16:45	Refreshment
Session8 dream and fairy Tales 16:45~18:15	Kono Kazunori	Reconsideration on the narcissism of small differences	Poster Session 16:45~17:45	Himeka Matsushita	Significance of drawings without a tree in response to the Baum test by schizophrenic patients: Interpreting drawings by schizophrenic patients from a Jungian perspective
	Gabrielle R. Milanich	In Gardens of Rock and Stone: Jung's "Slender Sadness" and the Japanese Garden
	Shoichi Kato	Compassion Archetype -Revisiting 'clinical empathy' from F. Schleiermacher's translational viewpoint-
18:15~18:25	closing ceremony

Accommodations:

Unfortunately, Otemon Gakuin University does not provide accommodations. Participants may choose their own accommodations from a selection of numerous hotels and inns in Osaka and Kyoto depending on their budget as there are no accommodations in Ibaraki City. We strongly recommend participants to lodge near Kyoto and Osaka not far from the Kyoto Line of Hankyu railways for their convenience.

Access:

- Regarding the location, please see: <https://www.otemon.ac.jp/english.html>
- Address of Otemon Gakuin University, Ai campus: 2-1-15 Nishiai Ibaraki, Osaka Japan

Otemon Gakuin University, Ai Campus is located near Hankyu Ibaraki City station of Kyoto Line of Hankyu Railway. It takes about twenty minutes by the limited express train of Hankyu railway from Osaka Umeda, Kyoto Kawaramachi, Karasuma and it takes 20 minutes by FREE SHUTTLEBUS from Hankyu Ibaraki City Station to Ai campus. See timetable below for free shuttle bus times.

Registration:

It starts from 8:15~16:00 at B1 of Student Hall on first day (8:30~16:00 on second day, Sunday, Nov. 3th.). Participants will receive program, abstracts, and nametags.

Directions for Presentation:

Oral presentation:

Neither moderator nor commentator is on session and every presenter can start presentations by themselves on time. It takes 20 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for discussion and 30 minutes in total. Please be cognizant of your speaking time to ensure sound management of the conference. If you use Power Point, please bring data of slides in USB stick.

Poster presentation:

After registration, presenters can put posters on the board provided in Room 5606 anytime. Please stay in front of your poster for discussion at least a set hour of session. After the session, you can leave posters by closing ceremony.

Lunch:

Enjoy free buffet style lunch at B1 of Student Hall. At the entrance, please show attendant staff your nametag.

Refreshment:

Enjoy free coffee, tea and some sweets served at hall beside Room 5605, 5606. However, no food or drink in both room with exception bottled water.

Specific event:

During the conference, Otemon Gakuin University releases Shorai-an (tea ceremony house) 11:00~16:00 on both days. You can feel free to visit there and experience Japanese tradition.

Hankyu Ibarakishi Station Bus stop for Direct Bus

Otemon Gakuin University Ai Campus Direct Bus Timetable
November 2 (Sat) and 3 (Sun), 2019
From Hankyu Ibarakishi Station to Ai Campus		Ai Campus to Hankyu Ibarakishi Station
6		30
7	00	15	45
8	00	15
9	00
10	00
11	00
12	00
13	00
14	00
15	00
16	00
17	00
	9		30
	10		30
	11		30
	12		30
	13		30
	14		30
	15		30
	16		30
	17		30
	18		30 45
	19	00	30
	20	00	30

Ibaraki Ai Campus Map

