

IAJS/Duquesne U. Program Draft (January 7, 2021)

Words in parentheses are not titles but brief summations of titles.
Authors are to use their own discretion regarding how to structure their own time, including how much time within their time slot to leave for discussion. 10-15 minutes is recommended.

Thursday, March 18

9.00-9.45	Zoom will be live, testing and assisting any participants or registrants who are stuck. Remember to switch your microphones off. Use the “chat” option to type comments and questions.
9.45-10.00	Welcome and orientation
10.00-11.00	Plenary: Mark Saban: Two Jungs; two sciences?
11.10-11.50	Goodwyn (neuroscience)		Sipiora (Hillman’s politics)
12.00-12.40	Graf-Nold (Medard Boss)	Myers (Types and human science)	Giambonini (Psychosocial)
Break
1.00-2.00	Plenary: Lucy Huskinson: Conjoined in stone: architectural legacies of Nietzsche and Jung
2.10-3.10	Keynote Andrew Samuels: The role of the good-enough all-rounder in Jungian studies: “Clinic” and “Academy” revisited
3.20-4.00	Lall (Making theory)	Kell (pragmatism)	Poorbaugh (Nightmare of astrology)
4.10-4.50	Hovhannisan (Myth, and cognitive science)	Dean (Methodological pluralism)	Halperin (Flying saucers)
Break
7.00-8.35	John Akomfrah film: The Nine Muses. http://icarusfilms.com/if-muse
8.35-9.00	Panel discussion with Suzanne Barnard, Fanny Brewster, and others

Friday, March 19

10.00-11.00	Plenary Robert Segal: Paul Ricoeur’s reconciliation of the human with the social sciences
11.10-11.50	Fourie (Otherness)	Hauke: (Therapy in virtual reality)	Euvrard (The elephant)
12.00-12.40	Schamp (Whiteness)	Schwartz (Kristeva, trauma, autoimmune disease)	Heide-Jorgensen (Fx of religion)
Break
1.00-1.40	Welsh (Transracial identity)	Henderson (Deleuze)	Hennebert (Goddesses of Brazil)
1.50-2.30	Cunningham (Selma and Analysis)	Faydysh (Death drive and female orgasmic disorder)	Alvin/Hanley/Hinds, (Apocalypse immanent)
Imminent)
2.40-3.40	Plenary :Fanny Brewster: Journeying: Grievance to grief
3.50-4.50	Plenary: Robin Brooks: Doing the work of politics amidst massive entopic collapse

Saturday, March 20

10.00-11.00	Plenary: Romanyshyn: Recovering the poetic realism of the world in the gap between phenomenology and Jungian psychology: a foundation for a cultural-historical therapy, with ethical and political implications
11.10-11.50	Park/Mellor (Embodied meaning making)	Balenci (Jung & Groddeck)	Davis (Gimbutas)
12.00-12.40	Colacicci (Jung's ethics)	Odde, (Somatic unconscious)	Fialkovskaya (Buddhist reading)
12.50-1.30	Shany (Neumann's ethics)	Savage (Baubo/Demeter)	Ostafin (Studying the numinous)

Break

1.50-2.50	Plenary: Jon Mills: Jung on transcendence
3.00-3.40	Cohen (Jung's 3 women pts)	Hinds (Hillman&Tarnas)	Nathenson (Gun violence)
3.40-4.20	Phillips/Vahdani (personal & objective psyche)	White (Ressentiment)	Rand (Geometry & individuation)

Sunday, March 21

10.00-11.00	Plenary: Stanton Marlan: The way of the Diamon: from The Red Book to the alchemical imagination and the reddening of psychology
11.10-11.50	Schneider (Anti-homeless architecture)	Literski, Paleolithic art	Scannel (Jung in the classroom)
12.00-12.45	Plenary session panelists for afterthoughts and discussion with the audience. Questions and comments submitted through Zoom "chat" and responded to on video by panelists.
1.00-2.00	IAJS open meeting: future goals and projects (Is this still practical?)		